

Title: Social Media Summer Student

Reports to: Executive Director

The Mission of AFC in Canada:

Ambassadors For Christ (AFC) In Canada exists to continue God's work in the worldwide evangelical student movement. In partnership with local churches, we endeavour to walk alongside students, primarily of Chinese ethnicity, to be grounded in Scripture and as faithful followers of Jesus Christ.

Job Summary:

In alignment with AFC's Mission Statement, the Social Media Intern assists in shaping, developing, and effectuating a social media brand presence that reflects the desired values of AFC in Canada. In collaboration with respective parties, the Intern will help develop an integrative social media strategy that will accomplish the goals of the Communications team.

Tasks and Responsibilities:

Work collaboratively with appropriate parties to develop an engaging and relevant social media presence for AFC in Canada:

- Grow AFC in Canada's social media presence by implementing a thoughtful and strategic plan
- Create original content for AFC's various social media platforms, in alignment with our ethos and brand, to grow digital engagement and interaction
- Help write and/or edit external communications (ex: newsletters), micro-blogs, or announcements
- Maintain and curate AFC's online content on a day-to-day basis through our various channels and platforms
- Develop, test, and evaluate various social media campaigns to drive followership and engagement
- Adapt our communication strategies to various audiences, platforms, and situations in order to build our online community
- Tell AFC's story through compelling written and visual content and communication
- Determine best practices and strategies for future digital growth
