

Title: Ministry Summer Associate

Reports to: Executive Director

The Mission of AFC in Canada:

Ambassadors For Christ (AFC) In Canada exists to continue God's work in the worldwide evangelical student movement. In partnership with the local churches, we endeavour to walk alongside students, primarily of Chinese ethnicity, to be grounded in Scripture and as faithful followers of Jesus Christ.

Job Summary:

In alignment with AFC's Mission Statement, the Ministry Associate assists in the furtherance of AFC in Canada's High School and Post Secondary Ministry initiatives, reflecting the desired values and outcomes of AFC. The Intern, in collaboration with appropriate teams, will help with executing an integrative high school and campus ministry experience that will encourage, develop, and help students involved in respective high school and campus groups grow and flourish.

Tasks and Responsibilities:

Work collaboratively with appropriate parties to execute an engaging, relevant, and integrative high school and post secondary ministry experience for AFC in Canada groups:

- Disciple student leaders, helping them grow in their Christian faith in the areas of spiritual formation, leadership development, and missional engagement
- Support student leaders as they prepare for the 2022-23 academic year, including the planning of community programming, recognizing the unique challenges presented by shifting pandemic guidelines
- Assist in the planning and execution of training workshops that explore the intersection of faith and the lived experiences of students today
- Support the planning and execution of Frosh ConneXion and NEXUS
  - Frosh ConneXion - a networking event designed to connect incoming first-years to authentic communities at their respective campuses, allowing for an easier transition
  - Nexus - a networking event designed to connect primary/middle school graduates and senior high school students, allowing for an easier transition into high school
- Work collaboratively with our Communications team to develop compelling social media content to help students engage authentically on issues at the intersection of faith and life
- Brainstorm and explore opportunities for adaptive change with regard to how we engage students/communities, in order to better serve their diverse needs and interests
